

Important information regarding: Indonesian volcanic activity - Mount Agung

Issued: 18 September 2017

This advice applies to customers who are concerned by the raised alert for Mount Agung volcano following an increase in volcanic earthquakes.

This information is current at 2pm 18th September 2017 and we recommend you regularly check for updates through news agencies and your travel provider.

Background

The National Disaster Mitigation Agency said that the alert has been raised from normal to vigilance. It warned against panic, saying there would be further increases in volcanic activity and changes to the alert level before an eruption. As of today no flights have been reported cancelled or diverted. However in the future the airlines may cancel or divert flights into and out of Denpasar
